

I thought that our government regulators were to protect the public interest. Obviously, FCC has preferred private interests over public interest for the last 20+ years. Our republic depends upon varied news sources to inform the public. Your proposed action is simply an effort to defeat democracy in fact if not in name. Don't do this!